What can I say? I haven't spent too much time with you yet this year, so I haven't had a chance to meet you all. Most of you think probably that I'm crazy going back to school, if nobody forces me, but believe me, it's not so bad. I'm sure that after years, or even maybe after months spent away from school, you will remember only good moments. I know that, because although there were many things I didn't like in my school in Poland, they all seem to be unimportant now. I miss those moments, I miss my friends, and I'm sure you will too. But now I'm here and I only hope I'll become part of your memories. I wish you would remember me not only as a person whose name you couldn't pronounce. By the way, it's FAJOWO here, so don't complain.

How do you send a dedication of hate to a prison with open doors. The past four years were hell, but certain people made it detestable: Tim, Sara, Jamie, Luther, Diana, Kathleen, Justin, Greta, and Kersti. So many deranged memories were shared with these people: The E. Harwich car hoss, parties at Karen's house (Karen is fat), Ubluuvg, Pearl Street, the Spice channel, the Safety Dance, uprooted at 4:20, and the many parties. Gutter is a priss. Diana, I want to thank you for all your favors and your love. Sara, thanx for your critiques on my writing and thanx for my haircut. Kathleen, thank you for the prom, I had a lot of fun with you. I feel sick thinking about this school so I'm leaving. (P.S.- Fred stay out of the pits or you'll get STOMPT!)

As a foreign exchange student from France, I'm spending my senior year in Harwich, in order to improve my english and become familiar with american culture. I'm having a great time here, thanks to my host family (Eaton), who really makes efforts to help me feel good and the guys of the soccer team I'm playing with. I think it is a great experience to live in a foreign country, because it is the best way to learn tolerance. All of you who want to have fun should do that, you won't regret it.

POETRY CLUB

You look into my eyes, what do you see.
When stare silently are you thinking about me?
How long will this last?
How long will you care?
Inside I hope you'll always be there.
You hold me so gently and pull me so near you whisper sweet nothings softly into my ear.
Our fingers entangle and our lips came together suddenly I feel as graceful, as a falling feather.
How long will this last?
How long will you care?
Can I always trust you or should I dare?
You tell me you love me and that there is no one else.
You say I'm beautiful, and have my picture on your shelf.
Is it me you care about or just if I'll give it out?

How long will it last?
How long will you care?
Deep down I know love just isn't fun.

"In the Absence of Eyes", by Neil Dauphinee

From the darkest depths of the darkest world
You will not see a soul darker than mine
With a dried tear on my cheek,
I realize now that it's no longer my fault
And I can stop blaming my mind, my child
But the lonesome heart that beats under my ribs, Can't see why I sit alone in the corner

Light, in the absence of eyes, illuminates nothing

They change around me, unknowing of my thoughts
I keep to myself, with a peek in the window
But they will never know how I lived my life

Sleep now, dearest child, and worry not how little they care For the time will come for the light to shine
For the shadows to disperse
And the masses will finally love

A heart, in the absence of love, breeds a painful life

The false beat of an unloving belief Would care nothing for how much they believe in it I can't sleep anymore, I must take action or creep
But I can't see the light through the depths and shadows

Love, in the absence of life, warms no one.

A DREAM WITHIN A DREAM

Take this kiss upon the brow!
And in parting from you now, Thus much let me avowyou are not wrong, who deem That my days have been a dream;
Yet if Hope has flown away
In a night, or in a day, In a vision, or in none, is it therefore the less gone?
All that we see or seem is but a Dream Within a Dream

I stand amid the roar of a surf-tormented shore, and I hold within my hand grains of the golden sand-How few! Yet how they creep through my fingers to the deep, While I weep- while I weep!
O God! Can I not grasp Them with a tighter clasp?
Oh God! Can I not save one from the pitiless wave?
Is all that we see or seem
But a dream within a dream?

-Edgar Allan Poe-

"Open Doors", by Neil Dauphinee

When will I be free from this place, This prison with open doors
All my life, what could I see But my companions flocking to the open doors
Only to be trapped inside for all our lives I've spent my youth inside, Staring at the world abroad with longing eyes
I've been trapped for many years,
But the days are closing and the doors are opening...
Permanently.

Under a "second in command" dictator we cower Fearing the penalties of our own freedom
We wish to leave from his rule, but for naught
We must be here...for it is written

Though the time has arrived to exit Forever, I can never take back my indecision,
I will never reclaim my youth.
They will say it's for the best...
I will answer with frightening words
This was never for our benefit...
It was only for their control of our minds Never again will I answer the ringing When the doors open for my last time, I'll be running for my forever freedom

Is this the way it's supposed to go A continuous journey to somewhere A destination you're not quite sure of But you know someday you'll get there.

It's always a mystery what you're going to find It gets twisted, wide, narrow, and Sometimes it branches out and you Find yourself at a dead end.

In this instance you just have to turn yourself around and get back on it.
Unless you choose to walk into the unknown.

Some things have their up's and some things have their down's, they can also obstruct your vision. It's fun to climb and stand at the surface, but once you're there it's too far to see where the next one comes along.

The view is so perfect from above that you never want to come down and sometimes you don't. For some people that's the end and that's where they seek their destination.

For others that stumble, they just have to get up and head back in their somewhat known direction until they too, reach their surface or find an out.

Jen Burgess

WHAT LIPS MY LIPS HAVE KISSED.

What lips my lips have kissed, and where, and why, I have forgotten, and what arms have lain under my head till morning; but the Rain is full of ghosts tonight, that top and sigh.
Upon the glass and listen for reply.
And in my heart there stirs a quiet pain for unremembered lads that not again.
Will turn to me at midnight with a cry.
Thus in the winter stands the lonely tree, Nor knows its boughs more silent than before:
I cannot say what loves have come and gone,
I only know that summer sang in me
A little while, that in me sings no more.

EDNA
St. Vincent Millay

could this be good-bye forever...
thirteen years making friends holding back enemies seeing relationships come and go torn apart by emotions that can now be remembered and laughed at someone who you have liked all your life never to see again except at a ten year reunion possibly parties where you had fun making fools of yourselves and not caring what people thought of you especially the next day when you saw them but who cares this is life our life that has ended as a class but will live on as we seek our dreams our strength as one will be renewed by our individuality
could this be good-bye forever anyway you look at it the memories we have will hold us up and will encourage our growing until we meet again.
